"She was still screaming and crying for help.

"She floated to the top. I was holding on to her. I saw some boys swimming. I yelled for help. They came running.

"I dove back in the car.

Steve was still on the front seat. He was crying too. I pulled him by the arm. I made him hang on the door post. I reached for Timothy. He was in the back.

"His toy car was floating around. I pulled him out. By that time help came. They took Katie, then the bridge. Then Steve, then Timothy.

"I got scared only once. Before the car hit. I was scared I would get hurt or knocked out.

"I knew without me they would have drowned in the car."

Though Miss Denny had been inactive for some time, at one time she had been employed as a stenographer at the Veterans' Hospital in Gulfport and had also worked as a court stenographer.

She was a member of Our Lady of Victories Church.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday at OLV by Msgr. B. J. Carey. Interment was in Maplewood Cemetery.

Pall bearers were Vertis Ramsey and nephews Walter M. Denny, Jackson; Frank G. Denny, Mobile; T. W. Milner, Jr., Gulfport; Walter D. Milner, Ocean Springs, and Roy Keel, Hattiesburg.

She is survived by two sisters, Misses Kate and Irene Denny, Pascagoula, and several nieces and nephews.

million, while the income housing development in Moss Point, Miss., opened Thursday on Main Street.

Hours will be 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 8 a.m. to noon on Friday and Saturday.

The federal units will be ready for occupancy May 15 and immediate application for one of the 72 units is urged.

The houses vary in size from one to four bedrooms and each is furnished with a refrigerator and stove. Rent is based on the family's income and includes water and gas.

There are still vacancies in the Negro project and applications are being received in the office on Abney Street. These are ready for immediate possession.

The number of cars in an average freight train has been mounting. In 1926 there was an average of 46 freight cars per train. Today it is about 70 cars per train.

Ramirez will represent Moss Point in the state primary, May 15 and 16, in Indianola.

Second place in the contest went to Richard Brister, and third place to James Brister, both of Moss Point high.

The contest was sponsored by the Moss Point Jaycees.

Patricia. Tell me how many generations of fgs's you need and your address and I will send them. For now I will tell you most of what I know about your Mary Hardy and some of what I know about mine.

The following information comes from a letter written by Homer Durwood Holmes, grandson of Mary Ida Duren Goodyear Edwards and great grandson of Martha Jane Hardy Duren. This letter was written in 1946 to Miss Mallie B. Hutchinson of Stillwater Ok. who was the daughter of Virginia Hardy Hutchinson - who was Virginia Ann Hardy, daughter of James B. Hardy and Mary Ann McRae.

"In a letter rec'd Mar. 25, 1946, Mrs. Mollie Perkins Hardy of Collins, Miss., says: 'Aquilla Hardy and his brother, James, had adjoining places in Jasper Co., Miss., about 2 mi. from Antioch Church. These two places are known to this day as the Hardy Places.

The two Hardy boys married girls who had the same given name of Mary, so the wife of Quilla was always called - >> Mary-quilla by the family, and James's wife was called Mary.

Aquilla Hardy, at his death, left 300 acres of land in Bowie Co., Texas. Each of his 6 children got 50 acres a piece.

Aquilla Hardy died March, 1883, Bowie Co., Texas, and is buried at Red Bayou Cemetary near New Boston, Texas. His dau. Mrs. Caroline 'Cad' Cooley kept house for him in his old age, and his family Bible passed into her hands, then into her son's at his, Aquilla's death.

Aquilla and Mary Skinner were married in Jasper Co., Miss. This is not proven because the Court house in Jasper >> burned to the ground after their marriage, and no documents are in existence prior to this time.

Children of Aquilla and Mary (Skinner) Hardy:

Frances 'Doan' Hardy married Mr. Storey

Thomas 'Tom' Hardy married Ada Simms

Sally married Mr. Gillis

Caroline "Cad" married Mr. Cooley

Martha Jane 'Babe' married William Lucius Duren. (my gr grandparents)

Lettie married Christopher 'Crit' Lewis - lived in Clarksville. Tex." >>>>

There is another half page of this letter, listing desc. of these folks - Do you want me to go on - or do you have enough - since they are collateral relatives, perhaps you don't want more???

Now on to James Blunt Hardy - who married Mary Ann McRae c. 1845. The information that James B. m. Mary Ann McRae comes from more than one source. My primary source is a Mrs. John H. (Gladys) Stallings Ballenger, 422 N. Maxwell Av. Tulia Tx 79088. She shared with me information that she got from Bon Hardy Chambers - daughter of Dan M. Hardy, son on James B. Hardy. Bon was also in touch with Frances >> Hardy Tyler, a sister of James B. Hardy. Frances Hardy Tyler lived in Brookhaven MI with a mailing address of Monticello, Lawrence Co. MI.

Mary Ann McRae was the dau. of Christofer and Jane McRae of Choctaw Co AL in 1850. Mary Ann is shown to have been born in Miss according to the census of 1850 and 1860. She was b. c. 1832. She had a brother named Daniel and a sister Eliza. James Blunt Hardy was the son of Robert Hardy and Olivia Horne Hardy of SC. Olivia (b. Edgecombe Co. North Carolina) and her sister Patsy were the children of Nathaniel and Roena Horne nee Horne. Good luck! Maggie

Patricia - am so glad to be able to help someone else - so many have helped me.

Aquilla and James Blunt Hardy had sisters Francis Hardy Tyler, Lizzie Hardy Richardson, and a brother Robert Hardy.

Frances is the one that lived in Lawrence Co AL. The parents of this family, Robert and Olivia Horne Hardy are buried there - at least the mother is, because she lived >> with Francis in her old age. Frances and her husband had four children - Julius Tyler, Emma Rose, Martha - Mrs. A. G. Pierce and ??????. Frances lived with her daughter Emma Rose in Mrs Tyler's old age - 1920's - in Lawrence Co AL so some of the family might still be around.

Lizzie Hardy Richardson had one son Frank Richardson and his children were Will, Jim, Lem, Robert and ?????

Aquilla had 5 daughters and one son. The names that I have - Caroline and Lettie that you don't have - I got from family that knew them first hand. could your names be from census. Somehow I think they are the same as yours. >

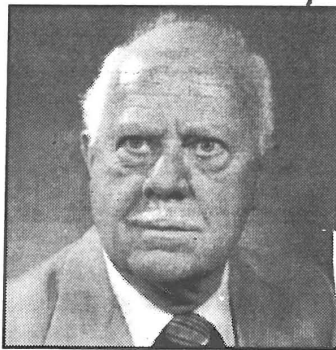

Sarah was Sarah "Sallie".

Martha Jane's marriage to William Lucius Duren took place in Pike Co. Arkansas on Dec. 14, 1871.

Martha Jane Hardy Duren died April 11, 1893 and is buried next to her Dad in Red Bayou Cemetery near New Boston TX. She attended Red Bayou Baptist Church.

I must go - will get back this afternoon.

BABY MILES BOARD.
MAN HARDY, JR.

The little babe of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hardy was called by the death angel July 25, after a short stay with us of only two years and two months. He was stricken when only eight days old with spinal meningitis and has been a patient sufferer since, until the angel came to set him free from his suffering and take him safely to the arms of Jesus.

We join the many friends of the family in extending to the parents our sympathy, and assuring them of our prayers.

The funeral services were conducted by the writer and Rev. B. C. Cook at the home of Mr. Hardy, where quite a number of loving and sympathetic friends had gathered. The beautiful flowers in profusion spoke to us all, not only of the love and affection of loved and friends, but they served as a reminder of the Christian's hope in immortality. They remind us that God had plucked the little rosebud, only, to transplant it is the Paradise of God, by "Waters of the River of Life."

IN MEMORY OF

HOMER HARDY

*God hath not promised
Skies always blue ,
Flower-strown pathways
All our lives through ;
God hath not promised
Sun without rain ,
Joy without sorrow ,
Peace without pain .*

*But God hath promised
Strength for the day ,
Rest for the labor ,
Light for the way .
Grace for the trials ,
Help from above ,
Unfailing sympathy
Undying love . . .*
